Bio & Policy Statement from
A Nominee for Correspondent Member Governor
Board of Governors 2018-2019

Jennifer JETT

Affiliation: The New York Times

This was my first year as a Correspondent Governor, and I have to say it's been eye-opening. There is a lot that goes into running this club and running it well. Having spent this year getting up to speed on everything that entails, I'm ready to hit the ground running for a second term.

As a member of the Finance Committee, my top priority is making sure the club is on a sound financial footing. That means cutting costs, maximizing our use of space and making sure the FCC is a place where members enjoy spending their time and money. It's also important that members and their guests feel comfortable here, which is why I'm working on a formal harassment policy. Finally, I'd like to enhance the FCC's role in the broader community by continuing the work of the Charity Committee as well as efforts to connect with student journalists.

About me: This is my seventh year at The New York Times, where I'm currently a digital editor responsible for the home page and mobile app. I came to Hong Kong in 2010, thinking I would stay just long enough to get my master's degree at HKU, but last year I became a permanent resident instead. The FCC has been an integral part of my life here, and I will put in the work to keep it strong for the future.
