Bio & Policy Statement from
A Nominee for Correspondent Member Governor
Board of Governors 2022-2023

Jennifer JETT

Affiliation: Asia Digital Editor, NBC News

The FCC has been central to my life in Hong Kong since I joined in 2013. I served as a Correspondent Governor and First Vice President from 2017 to 2019, and joined the Board again in September of last year. The FCC staff, along with my fellow Board members, have done an outstanding job steering the Club through the challenges of the past few years, and I'm hopeful that this year all that hard work will be rewarded with a Club that is stronger and more vibrant than ever.

In a new term as Correspondent Governor, my priorities would be recruiting a wide range of new members and fostering an atmosphere that feels inclusive for all, as well as helping to organize the Club's stellar lineup of live events, both online and in person. I also plan to continue supporting the important work of the Press Freedom Committee. Finally, I would seek more opportunities to cultivate the Club's ties with the broader community, such as its pandemic collaborations with China Coast Community and HELP for Domestic Workers.

About me: As Asia digital editor at NBC News, I coordinate coverage of Asia news for NBCNews.com. Before that, I spent 10 years as an editor at The New York Times, all in Hong Kong, where I also attended HKU's graduate journalism program. I'm originally from Arizona.

Thank you for your support and hope to see you soon at the Club!
