Bio & Policy Statement from
A Nominee for Correspondent Member Governor
Board of Governors 2023-2024

Morgan DAVIS
Affiliation: IFR

Bio:

I currently work full time as the Bonds Editor at IFR, a financial publication that is headquartered in London. I also teach international journalism to master's students at Hong Kong Baptist University.

I have been in Hong Kong for seven years now, and a journalist for a decade. My life has taken me from my hometown in Springfield, Illinois to Washington, DC where I studied and had a short stint working for the government to New York City, where I received my master's degree and transitioned into the world of journalism.

Statement:

I was honored to join the board of the FCC last year, and would be honored to be considered for another term as governor.

The FCC has played an important role in my Hong Kong life over the last six years. It's been a hub for me both personally and professionally, and it is one that I hope will continue to thrive well into the future. Many things have changed in Hong Kong in the last few years, but the FCC continues to hold a unique and important place in the city. In the last year, the board has done a fantastic job bringing in more young journalists, and I hope to contribute more to that initiative going forward by helping organize and host more social events and trainings.

I have enjoyed being an active member of the communications, professional, building and F&B committees in the last year. I have worked with The Correspondent magazine for some time now, and will continue to dedicate myself to supporting its position as a leading media publication. Our club does incredible work and hosts fantastic speakers, and I am happy to be in the position to be able to share those in a print publication, as well as on social media and the club's podcast.
